Israel's national hero, Defence Minister
Moshe Dayan, admitted publicly here
today that the shooting down of the Libyan Boeing 727 on Wednesday had all been
the most terrible mistake.

He paraded his army and air force chiefs before world Press and television correspondents and said they must bear their share of responsibility for the loss of the 106
lives.

Dear Tim, —
I was delighted to have the opportunity of discussing with you
the meeting I had with Rahim and Michael. —
I was encouraged to hear
that they thought it went well
and to keep forward to discussing
with them the position in Gwerre
in further detail. —
Once the handwriting text has been completed, I will contact the people with whom Rahim and Michael wish to speak. —
Finally and once I have received
the list from the Skans Club,
I will forward to you
my claim for expenses.
Kindest regards,
Michael

I thought I heard a lover sigh.
it wasn't very loud

it came as I was passing by Somebody else's chair.

Her curtains were the finest lace
and when the night winds blew,
I saw the dew upon her face
and other places too.

Mes ateliers de slam

C'était un mercredi. C'était à la gare de l'Est. Il pleuvait des cordes. Je m'arrêtais dans ce bar au coin de cette petite rue. C'était une ambiance très spécifique, je voyais ces individus pleins d'énergie. Moi aussi, je décidai de me lancer. Voilà comment à commencer mon amour pour le slam.

Dear John.

Here are a few lines of my hand.
Writing for you to analyze.

The weather in Hull on the 20/1/98.
was very cold and dry. The roads were white with frost, and late into the afternoon. Snow started to fall but could not lay.

P.S. I will ring you on Monday to arrange a visit.

I woke up with a start this morning
when my blackberry indicated that I had received a message. It was about the New Zealand earthquake which had occurred two hours beforehand.
There has been terrible loss of life so it is a very distressing time for all of the South Islanders.

Compd with the problems in the middle east this has been a difficult time for insurance underwriters.
There is no telling what the losses
will amount to.

Don, if you could analyse this handwriting for me that would be really great.

Dear John

I am writing this letter to you as requested. I was thinking about what to write which would be spontaneous and was more difficult than I first thought, so I have decided to tell you about our last family holiday.

I took the family to Paphos in Cyprus last year and it was the best holiday we have had as a family. I am usually the first one up in the mornings as I tend not to need as much sleep as the others. Once we were all up we ate a good breakfast and hit the pool. My son's name is Isaac who was 4 years old at the time and swam a width in the pool for the first time without armbands on. Kind regards

Recently my family and I took a week-long holiday in Pitres, a small village located in the province of Granada in Southern Spain. The village is situated 1000 metres above sea level in the Sierra Nevada Mountain range and is where my mother- and father-in-law have a holiday home. I really enjoy these visits to Southern Spain and love all things Spanish, especially the food.

The journey to Pitres took most of the day and started with a short taxi ride from our home in north Leeds to Leeds Bradford Airport. We left the house at 4am in order to allow ourselves plenty of time to catch our flight, which departed the airport at 7am. The flight, to Málaga, took a little over three hours and was pleasantly uneventful, which is always a relief when travelling with young children.

After a quick lunch and collecting our hire-car, we left the airport and started our journey east, towards Pitres. We initially followed the coastline along the A7 motorway, for approximately 100 kilometres, before turning north and heading into the mountains. During the final 50 kilometres of our journey we travelled along narrow winding mountain roads, through the small market town of Orgiva and stopping only to allow a shepherd and his herd of sheep to pass. We finally arrived into Pitres at 4pm, twelve hours after leaving home but in time to finally relax and enjoy the late afternoon sunshine.
